

Invitation for Nomination to the Nestor Korchinsky Student Leadership Award

DESCRIPTION

This award was initiated in honour of the leadership of Dr. Nestor Korchinsky, who was a professor at UBC and the Director of Intramural Programming for 38 years. Dr. Korchinsky's leadership and initiative created one of the most renowned intramural programs in the country, as he saw a need in the university community and filled it by creating what is now UBC Rec. The award, presented annually at the UBC Student Leadership Conference, is meant to recognize a student who embodies Dr. Korchinsky's spirit of leadership and initiative at UBC and potentially in the wider community as well.

The recipient of Nestor Korchinsky Student Leadership Award will receive their conference registration, a monetary award, as well as a plaque in their honour presented at the SLC 2010 Closing Ceremony.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- * Finalists will be highlighted in a video slideshow prior to the award presentation.
- * Candidate must agree to sign a release form for media recording.

SELECTION CRITERIA

UBC students, faculty, staff, members of the community, and alumni are invited to nominate any individual who meets the following requirements:

- * Candidate must be a current student in an undergraduate or graduate program at the University of British Columbia.
- * Demonstrated sustained leadership and initiatives that go above and beyond that of their peers, on the UBC campus and perhaps in the wider community as well.
- * Contributions made by the recipient demonstrate a commitment to leadership and positive change within the university community that is worthy of recognition.

TO NOMINATE

The deadline for nominations to the Office of Graduate Programs & Research (OGPR) is 4:00pm on Tuesday, November 10, 2009. The nomination form can be found below.

Please include 2 letters of support detailing the nominee's individual accomplishments and contributions to the UBC and wider communities which set them apart from other student leaders on campus. Please highlight the characteristics which qualify them as a candidate for the Nestor Korchinsky Student Leadership Award. Your frank assessment will be invaluable in ensuring that the best candidate is chosen. Please note that one letter of support must come from a member of the UBC community.

Please email reference letters to christine.wallsworth@ubc.ca by 4:00pm on Tuesday, November 10, 2009.

Incomplete applications will not be considered.
